

Saint Charbel's Baptism Church

It is situated under the actual church. On the door sill a Cross is engraved identified with the area between the III and XIII Century, the church is connected to the town houses by an underground tunnel. It contains St Charbel's baptismal font and an icon of the Virgin Mary.